Easy Grammar

DO and MAKE in English:

DO - focuses on the action

Do - work (business)

- everyday task (do the dishes)
- habits and routines (do shopping)
- replaces a verb (she did that)

DO and MAKE in English:

MAKE - focuses on the outcome

Make - plans (make a choice)

- food (make my lunch)
- communication (make a call)
- reaction (make her upset)

DO vs MAKE in English:

Choosing between these two verbs is hard and is one of the most common errors English learners make.

Make means to create or prepare something

Do means to work at or perform an action

She made a nice coffee for herself.

She did the dishes when she went home.

Both verbs are irregular

make-made-made

do-did-done
